GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. This calendar, “Syro-Malabar Liturgical Calendar: Second Set”, is published for the liturgical celebration, based on the decision of the Syro-Malabar Bishops’ Synod held in January 2021 and June 2023.
2. According to the calendar of the East Syrian Church, the liturgical year is divided into nine liturgical seasons. A brief explanation of the spirit of the seasons is given at the beginning of every season.
3. The liturgical year is centered around the Holy Mysteries of the Salvation History. Birth of Jesus (Suvara-Yalda, Annunciation-Nativity), Baptism (Denha, Manifestation-Epiphany), Passion and Death of our Lord (Sauma Ramba, Great Fast), Resurrection- Easter (Qyamtha) Pentecost (Šleehe), Growth of the Church (Kaitha), Transfiguration and Exaltation of the Cross and the Second Coming of Jesus (Ēliya-Sleeva-Mušae), and Dedication of the Church (Qudaš Edtha) are the major salvific events commemorated.
4. Feasts are divided into three groups based on their importance. They are: Our Lord’s (Maranaya) Feasts, Important Feasts and Ordinary Feasts. The readings are arranged accordingly.
 - a. On our Lord’s Feasts and Commemorations the readings of the feasts are given before the readings of the season.
 - b. The Important Feasts are divided into two: Marian Feasts (Eg. Feast of the Immaculate Conception) and Commemorations of martyrs and saints (Eg. Dukhrana of St. Thomas, etc.)
 - c. The Ordinary Feasts are subdivided into two: i) of the Oriental Tradition and ii) of the Universal Church.

Note: Those given in bold letters are more important in these groups.

5. If the feast of Denha (Epiphany) falls on a Sunday, that Sunday is considered to be the First Sunday of the season of Denha. If the feast falls on a day from Sunday through Thursday, those days are considered to be of the first week of Denha. (If the feast falls on a Friday, the following Sunday will be considered as the First Sunday of Denha and the readings for the first Saturday of Denha are to be used on the following Saturday as well).
6. Those Feasts which fall on the Fridays of Denha are also indicated on the fixed dates of celebration according to the Sanctoral cycle. (Eg. Feasts of All Saints, Saints Peter and Paul, St. Stephen). The Second Sunday of Annunciation can be celebrated as the Feast of Mangalavartha.
7. The Memory of All the Departed Souls may be celebrated on the last Friday of Denha or on the 2nd of November.
8. The first Monday of Sauma Ramba (Great Fast) is the day of penitential service (Vibhoodi) and the related fasting and abstinence from meat. If necessary, it can be celebrated on another day of the Great Fast with the permission of the Local Ordinary.
9. Abstinence from meat is advisable on all days of the Great Fast, Twenty five day fast, Three day fast, Eight day fast and Fifteen day fast.
10. The Sunday after the 14th of September is considered to be the first Sunday of the Season of Sleeva (Cross). The readings for the season of Elia are continued till that Sunday. If the feast of Sleeva falls on a Sunday, it will be considered as the first Sunday of Sleeva (Cross).
11. Four readings are given for all Sundays and for all other Important Feasts.

12. The Table of Feasts in the Liturgical Year is given as Appendix II.
13. Readings for Sacraments, Feasts and for other special occasions are given as Appendix II.
14. On the day of the penitential service (Vibhoodi) at the beginning of the Great Fast and on Holy Friday (Passion Friday), fasting and abstinence from meat should be observed. Fasting on all the Fridays of this Season is highly advisable.
15. Abstinence from meat is observed on every Friday. There are exceptions for this on the Fridays between the Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord and the feast of Denha, and on the first Friday after Easter.
16. The feasts of the Nativity of Our Lord (December 25), Denha (January 6), St. Peter and St. Paul (June 29), Dukhrana of St. Thomas the apostle (July 3), Ascension of our Lord, (Thursday after the 6th Sunday of Easter), and Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (August 15) are the five days of obligation. If possible, every faithful should participate in the Holy Qurbana and the other celebrations on those days.
17. In the East Syrian Tradition, there are three Qudašas (Anaphoras): The First Qudaša (Qudaša of Mar Addai and Mar Mari) is used from the Monday after Palm Sunday till the end of the season of Dedication of the Church; the Second Qudaša (Qudaša of Mar Theodore) is used from the first Sunday of the season of Annunciation till and including Palm Sunday; the Third Qudaša (Qudaša of Mar Nestorius) is used on five days, i.e., on the feast of Denha (Epiphany), The Friday of John the Baptist, the memory of the Greek Fathers, the Wednesday of the three days fast, and on Pesaha (Holy Thursday). Any of these three Qudašas can be used on other occasions too.

Syro-Malabar Liturgical Year

The liturgical year in our Church is so devised that the liturgical community in different seasons and different places may closely reflect on and experience the redemptive work of Jesus Christ (Išo Mišiha). The Liturgical year celebrates the salvific mysteries of Jesus in its integrity and fullness. Through fasting and abstinence and commemorations of the saints, the liturgical year helps us to accomplish our destiny, the heaven.

The whole liturgical year and the feasts in it are arranged in order to focus the attention on the resurrection of Jesus, which is the centre of the mysteries of Christ. Instead of limiting the memorial of this great event, the early Church started extending this celebration to every Sunday. Later, all salvific mysteries from the Incarnation to the Second Coming of our Lord and the mysteries of the Church are celebrated all throughout the year by dividing it into several seasons. This arrangement of the liturgical year, which starts with the season of Annunciation and ends in the season of the Dedication of the Church, is an occasion for catechesis too.

Seasons of Syro-Malabar Liturgical Year:

Season of Annunciation (Suvara)

Season of Nativity (Yalda)

Season of Manifestation (Denha)

Season of the Great Fast (Sauma Ramba)

Season of Resurrection (Qyamtha)

Season of the Apostles (Šleehe)

Season of Summer (Kaitha)

Seasons of Elijah-Cross-Moses (Ēliya-Sleeva-Mušae)

Season of the Dedication of the Church (Qudash Edtha)

Annunciation-Nativity (Suvara-Yalda)

The season of Annunciation or Suvara is the first season in the Syro-Malabar liturgical year. The fullness of the Divine plan of God, which is to divinize man and to make him partake in the eternal life, is revealed in the incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Hence, the central theme of the season is the Nativity of Jesus.

As the title 'Annunciation' signifies, the Sundays of this season invite the faithful to meditate on the annunciations unfolding in the history of salvation and reaching its fullness in the annunciation to the Virgin at Nazareth. This season has four Sundays before the feast of the Nativity of Our Lord. The two weeks after the Nativity are called as the first and second weeks after the Nativity of the Lord.

As God gave an offspring to Abraham to form a people who believe in Him, He gives John to Zachariah as a herald of the new dispensation. It is through the chosen persons and their offspring that God reveals His salvific plan and continues to do so. The readings on the first and third weeks in this season give this message.

The birth of Jesus, which is the central theme of this season, is the fulfilment of the expectations and prophecies of the Old Testament. The Incarnation by the Son of God from Mary is to cleanse the sin caused by Eve. Jesus' incarnation leads the community to the 'Emmanuel experience' and thereby to the experience of Paradise.

The two weeks after the Nativity proclaim the events related to the incarnation and the whole life of Jesus before His public ministry. The Magi remind us that we need to seek Jesus actively to find Him who reveals Himself in our daily life. The young Jesus in the Temple teaches us that true worship of God happens only when there is real relationship with God.

Mother Mary is particularly venerated in the season of Annunciation as the divine instrument who submitted herself to the will of God with her Fiat and thus became the mother of Christ. Other than the Wednesdays assigned to her, this season commemorates the Friday before the season of Denha, as the feast of the Divine Motherhood of Mary. Since Blessed Virgin Mary revealed Jesus completely to the world, it is apt to celebrate her feast on the Friday that falls just before the season of Denha in which its Fridays commemorate the saints who revealed Jesus to this world.

Season of Denha

The Syriac word Denha means ‘dawn’, ‘manifestation’, ‘revelation’, etc. The season starts with the feast of Denha which commemorates the baptism of Jesus Christ. The Father and the Holy Spirit revealed the Son of God at His baptism and here commences the public ministry of Jesus, the Sun of Justice. This season reminds us that at the baptism of Jesus, the Holy Trinity is revealed.

This season which remembers the public ministry of Christ, the Messiah, highlights the personality of Jesus through the readings. As a crucial moment of His public ministry, the call of the Apostles is given much importance in this season.

The mother Church teaches that the Messiah came to earth for the sinners and He is the Lamb of God, and it is through Him, man attains remission of sins and salvation. The readings of this season proclaim that Jesus is the fulfillment of the Law, He is the Bread of Life and He is the Good and Merciful Shepherd who sends His disciples in search of the sheep.

The first Friday of Denha commemorates the feast of John the Baptist who experienced the glory of Jesus even from his mother’s womb and witnessed this glory from heaven at the time of Jesus’ baptism. The following Fridays remember the saints who witnessed Jesus by experiencing His divine glory. The last Friday is dedicated to all the departed who await in the great hope of resurrection.

Since the season of 'Great Fast' should have seven weeks before the feast of the Resurrection, the number of the weeks in Denha may vary. As a preparation for the season of the Great Fast, which has the spirit of contrition and penance, there is a three day fast in this season, 18 days before the season of the Great Fast.

Season of the Great Fast (Sauma Ramba)

The basis of the Season of the Great Fast is Jesus' forty days fast. This season assures that through fast and prayer one can evade evil and overcome the temptations. Great Fast teaches that one should share the God-given wealth with others and that the greed for wealth leads to sin. Through the act of contrition, one can experience the joy of salvation. The true disciple is one who recognizes God as his wealth after the example of the Apostles who left everything in order to follow Jesus.

The themes of the readings in this season are contrition, charity, prayer and fast. The purity of body is important, and the purity of heart is even more so. One attains salvation when one confesses his sins and follows Jesus. The Church exhorts that God wills our sanctification and it is through the unique sacrifice of Jesus' body, our salvation is attained.

It is extremely difficult to live without sin when our body tempts us to do the evil. This season encourages us to undergo this pain to practice virtues. All the sufferings and mortifications in our life lead us to grow in virtues and to lead a life united with Jesus Christ. Faithful accompaniment with the sufferings of Jesus helps us to enter into the joy of resurrection.

Season of Resurrection (Qyamtha)

The only feast in the early Church was the feast of Resurrection, which is the centre of Christian faith. From the time of the Nicaean Synod, this feast is celebrated on the Sunday after the first full-moon that follows March 21.

This season remembers the events from the Resurrection of Jesus to Pentecost in seven weeks. The first Friday of this season is celebrated as the Memorial of 'All Saints and Martyrs'. The Sunday after the feast of Resurrection is known as the New Sunday (Puthu-njayar) that commemorates the proclamation of faith in Jesus by St. Thomas, the Apostle.

This season gives the good news that the Risen Lord, who entrusted Simon Peter and other Apostles and their successors with the task of leading the flock, is with them till the end of the world. The feast of the Ascension of the Lord is celebrated on the fortieth day after the feast of Resurrection. Hence, this season asks the faithful to ponder on heaven, resurrection and eternal life. It is only through Jesus Christ, the savior, that one can attain eternal life.

The Church upholds the example of the Apostles who spent their whole time in the Temple as per the command of Jesus at the time of His Ascension. The Church asks us to wait hopefully for the joy of the Pentecost in the Church where heaven and earth unite.

Season of the Apostles (Šleehe)

The season of the Apostles (Šleehe) consists of seven weeks starting from the feast of Pentecost. The season focuses on the themes such as divine call, commissioning to preach the Good News and witnessing to Jesus. Pentecost is the day on which the Apostles received the Holy Spirit. This season emphasizes the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church. The first Friday of this season is known as the Golden Friday, reminding us of the fact that if one asks something in the name of Jesus, it will be received, just like the crippled beggar who got cured by Peter.

The faithful, filled with the Holy Spirit, are responsible to proclaim the good news of salvation. This season asks us to be missionaries like the Apostles. The Church calls upon all to declare, like St. Thomas, “let us go and die with him”. The God who protects his 'sent ones' is revealed in the prayers and hymns of this season.

Those who are sent to proclaim the Good News should lead a life centred on the Word of God. This season emphasizes the importance of witnessing to the Word of God without fear. A grain of wheat will bring forth a good harvest only if it falls on the ground and decays. Likewise, Jesus reminds us that we will gain our life by suffering and the courageous witnessing to the Word of God. Bearing witness to Jesus is the primary duty of every Christian.

The Holy Spirit, sent by the Father, dwells in every baptized and showers all His graces and fruits on them. Without the help of the Holy Spirit, one cannot remember and put into practice all that Jesus taught in this world. This season reminds the worshipping community that we lose the Holy Spirit at our own peril.

Season of Summer (Kaitha)

The Syriac word Kaitha means summer. Harvest normally takes place in the summer. The season of kaitha remembers and celebrates the growth of the Church and spiritual harvest. There are seven weeks in this season. It reminds of the evangelization of the apostles and the martyrs. As a result, the Church grew as a big tree and started bearing fruits of sanctity and martyrdom. This season which unites the season of Šleeha and the season of Elijah-Cross-Moses, deals with the missionary activities of the Church and exhorts the need for a good preparation for the second coming of the Saviour.

The first Sunday of Kaitha commemorates the feast of the Twelve apostles and this day is also known as Nusardel. On the Fridays of this season, we remember the martyrs and saints who witnessed Jesus courageously and thus ensured the growth of the Church. The first Friday is dedicated to Mar Jacob of Nisibis who offered his life for the Lord; second Friday to Mar Mari, the founder of the Persian Church who is the disciple of Mar Addai; fifth Friday to Marth Shmoni and her seven children and sixth Friday to Mar Simon Bar Saba and the co-martyrs. By commemorating their feasts, the Church invites the faithful to imitate them in bearing witness to Jesus.

The Church grows and bears fruits only when it abides in Christ, the Messiah. God patiently waits for the children of the Church to produce good fruits. The readings of this season remind us of the danger of producing bad fruits.

As the captain of the ship, Jesus, protects the Church, the arc of salvation, from all the powers of darkness and leads Her to the Heavenly Jerusalem. Hence, this season gives us the hope that there is no place for fear for those who trust in the Lord. The world and all that is in it will be destroyed; but the true treasure of the faith in the Lord will be eternal. This season exhorts, therefore, not to linger on the worldly things, but to have the true treasure in heaven.

Seasons of Elijah-Cross-Moses (Ēliya-Sleeva-Muṣae)

The central point of the seasons of Elijah-Cross-Moses is the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross (Sleeva) on 14 September. Elijah and Moses who were present at the Transfiguration of the Lord represent the Old Testament and the Cross (Sleeva) signifies Jesus who is the fulfillment of the Old Testament. The main themes of these seasons are the victory of the Cross (Sleeva), the Second coming of Jesus and the final judgement.

The Church invites us to prepare well for the Second Coming of Jesus by producing fruits of contrition and repentance by continuously meditating on the message received from the prophets of the true God. This season urges the faithful to avoid sins from their lives by making them aware that the desires of the body are against the Spirit.

The Church exhorts the liturgical community to serve the Lord and to grow in fidelity, wisdom, and to engage in incessant prayer and vigil as a preparation for the Lord's Day. This will help them to be worthy of the eternal life as the wise virgins.

The bronze serpent raised by Moses in the Old Testament is a prototype of the Cross (Sleeva) on which Jesus was raised at Calvary. One who is proud of the name of the Lord is also to be proud of His suffering and Cross (Sleeva), which is the symbol of salvation. This season reminds us that those who follow Jesus, who died on the Cross and entered into the glory of Resurrection should also carry the Cross. The readings highlight that suffering and death are essential for the entry into glory.

The Cross (Sleeva) on Calvary revealed the glory of Jesus who did the will of God by His suffering and death. Jesus, the One who sits at right side of the glory after his Death, Resurrection and Ascension, comes at the end as the Judge. The faithful are exhorted to embrace the suffering that comes their way to enter into the glory of the Lord who humbled Himself on the Cross (Sleeva) and was raised up by God.

Death and final judgement are the theological themes of the season of Moses. ‘Those who endure till the end will attain salvation’ is the word of hope that Jesus gives here. The Church teaches that even though the barren trees would be thrown away, those who bear fruit overcoming the hindrances and facing the sufferings with faith will attain solace and joy.

Season of the Dedication of the Church (Qudaš Edtha)

The season of the Dedication of the Church consists of the last four weeks in the liturgical year. These four weeks are arranged on the basis of the dedication of the four holy places in the Old Testament (Ex 40:1-17; Josh 18:1; 1Kgs 8:62-66; Ezra 3:2).

This season signifies the victory of the Church in the eschaton and her entry into the heavenly Jerusalem. All the prayers and hymns in this season reveal the joy of the glory attained by the bride, the Church, who is adorned by her bridegroom, Jesus Christ.

The season of the Dedication of the Church commemorates the face to face meeting of the Church as a bride with her bridegroom Jesus Christ and her glorious entrance to eternal joy.

The tabernacle in the Old Testament is the type of the Church. The Israelites experienced God's presence in this man-made tabernacle. Those who find God in Jesus and those who are vigilant enough as the wise virgins will enter with Jesus into the eternal tabernacle, the heavenly bridal chamber, which is not man-made. Jesus the bridegroom leads His bride, Church, not to a temporary tabernacle, but to the eternal heavenly bridal chamber.

With the awareness of the perishing nature of the cities in this world, the Church asks her faithful to live their life in view of heaven and its everlasting joy. She invites them to participate in the worship in truth and spirit in heaven by giving the insight that the Lord and the Lamb is the true temple in heaven. This is how the mother Church catechizes her children in this season.

Feasts in the Syro-Malabar Liturgical Year

There are two types of liturgical calendars in the Christian Churches: Temporal Cycle and Sanctoral Cycle. The Temporal Cycle is centered around the salvific events fulfilled in Jesus Christ; and this aims at guiding the community of the faithful into a profound meditation of the redemptive mysteries through the spirit of the Liturgical Seasons and thereby encouraging them to lead a true Christian life. The Sanctoral Cycle is organized according to the feast of saints; and in it the liturgical calendar follows the rhythm of the Fixed Feasts and Movable Feasts. East Syriac calendar, which the Syro-Malabar Church follows, is based on the temporal cycle; still, we can find elements of the Sanctoral cycle in the liturgical year of this Church.

The Second Vatican Council in consonance with the Tradition, exhorts to give more importance to the feasts of the Lord than the feasts of the saints. Therefore, feasts of the saints are not celebrated on Sundays, which is the day of Our Lord.

The list of the Feasts is arranged according to the spirit of the liturgical seasons and important feasts can be recognized easily. 110 feasts are included in this calendar. They are divided into three groups, Our Lord's (Maranaya) Feasts, Important Feasts and Ordinary Feasts. The Ordinary Feasts are subdivided into two: a. of the Oriental Tradition b. of the universal Church.

Eastern Churches have the tradition of integrating the feasts of saints in the Temporal Cycle. Fridays are considered important next to Sundays. Therefore, the feasts of the saints who became victorious by witnessing the Paschal Mysteries are celebrated either individually or in groups on Fridays. Their feasts are mostly celebrated on the Fridays in the seasons of Denha, Šleehe and Kaitha which commemorate the public ministry of Jesus, activities of the Apostles, and the growth of the Church respectively. Some feasts that should be observed to ensure the identity and Tradition of the Church are celebrated on some other Fridays. In order to link the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord, the day of All the Departed is celebrated on the last Friday of Denha and the All Saints' day is celebrated on the first Friday after the feast of Resurrection.

The feasts of Holy Qurbana (Eucharist) and Holy Trinity are listed in the Feasts of our Lord. The Pesaha is the ideal day for the feast of the Holy Qurbana. On the Feast of Denha and in the Season of Denha, the Holy Trinity is specially remembered. However, since the faithful live amidst other rites and Churches, and many Religious Congregations work among our community, some of the feasts of the Latin Church have been given importance in our Church too. Feast of the Holy of Blessed Sacrament, Feast of Sacred Heart, Feast of Christ the King, and Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel are some among them and they are included in the calendar. The feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus helps to meditate on the Mercy and Love of God. Since in some areas, the feast of All Saints and of All the Departed are observed according to the calendar of the Latin Church, they are also included in this calendar. Feasts of local importance can be celebrated locally.

Each individual Church has a serious responsibility to keep its identity and spirit. This calendar reflects an effort to be faithful to this sacred responsibility. The feasts of our Lord (Maranaya), feasts of Blessed Virgin Mary and some feasts of the saints are given in bold letters, according to their importance. Those in small letters are ordinary feasts and they have only two readings in the Qurbana.
